College of Arts and Humanities

Twenty-Fourth Annual Commencement
May 20, 2022

A Message from the President

CALIFORNIA
STATE
UNIVERSITY,
FRESNO

May 20, 2022

Dear Graduates,

Congratulations! You are the members of the 111th graduating class of California State University, Fresno!

Throughout this year, you've manifested courage, strength, and true bold excellence! I applaud you for achieving this major milestone in your life. Fresno State is proud to have been part of your educational journey.

You are now part of Fresno State's legacy: With a Fresno State degree, doors of opportunity will open and you'll become an active participant in our community. A Fresno State degree empowers you to give back and elevate the quality of life of your family, neighbors, and friends.

When you look back, I know that you will view your time at Fresno State as one of personal and intellectual growth through hard work and persistence.

Congratulations to you and your family!

Please stay engaged with Fresno State. Wear Fresno State red and join me and our alumni in making the university the very best it can be!

Be Bold! Be Proud! Be a Bulldog for life!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, reading "Saul Jiménez-Sandoval".

Saul Jiménez-Sandoval, Ph.D.
President

A Message from the Provost

Dear Graduates:

I congratulate you for achieving this significant milestone – graduating from Fresno State. The entire University community salutes you for this outstanding accomplishment.

Today, we celebrate with you the completion of an amazing journey, one in which many of you faced numerous challenges which you successfully overcame. Even in the face of a worldwide pandemic, which resulted in many upheavals during your time at the university, you persevered. You are now reaping the reward of your diligent commitment to excellence. In many ways, you have already established yourselves as leaders who know how to be flexible and adaptable in times of unforeseen change.

As you celebrate with your friends and families, and the outstanding faculty and staff who supported you on your academic journey, please remember that your success brings with it a great level of responsibility. I encourage you to give back – commit to being engaged, civic-minded citizens, who strive to make life better for those in your families and your communities.

I urge you to live your lives with integrity and purpose, seeking to pursue excellence in all your endeavors. Continue to challenge yourselves, to think creatively, to work collaboratively, and most of all, to be true to yourselves as you pursue your dreams.

As you begin another phase of your life's journey, you will continue to face challenges in these exciting and demanding times. I am confident that the skills you have honed and the character you developed during your time at Fresno State have prepared you to courageously realize your greatest ambitions

Please accept my very best wishes for a successful future.

Xuanning Fu, Ph.D.

THE CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY

A Message from the Dean of Undergraduate Studies

Congratulations to the Class of 2022! We are so proud of your many accomplishments while here at Fresno State. We wish you the very best in your future!

Sincerely,

Bernadette T. Muscat, Ph.D.
Dean of Undergraduate Studies

A Message from the Dean of Research and Graduate Studies

My congratulations to each and every one of you! Celebrate this momentous achievement.

You have traveled a path that may have been long and arduous but know that it was all worth it. Only 13% of Americans have a graduate degree, and I look forward to what you will do next in your life and career. As you go forward, don't forget to take time to celebrate your success before your next step in life.

Thank you for choosing Fresno State! We are proud of you and know you will represent our university well! And if you are considering a Master's or Doctoral degree in future, please consider one of the 54 programs on our campus.

Joy J. Goto, Ph.D.
Interim Dean Division of Research and Graduate Studies

A Message From The Dean And Associate Dean

Dear Arts and Humanities
Graduates,

Congratulations
on reaching this milestone! Just think of the many challenges you faced, especially during the past two years, but you overcame them all to reach this point. The arts and humanities have been the heart and soul of your educational journey leading to today's commencement. Yet as the name of this ceremony denotes, you are at only the beginning of a lifetime of discovery. The knowledge that you have gained here at Fresno State will light your path as you continue to reimagine our world in new and inspiring ways.

There is a fundamental lesson we have taught you at Fresno State, and it is a lesson that we as artists and humanists hold close to our hearts: Your life and your potential are not limited by a static identity nor by a history that must be repeated, but rather by your ability to think, to create, to express yourselves, and to shape yourselves into people who promote a just, equitable, inclusive, and peaceful world.

You are now the ambassadors of the gifts of a great education. May your next steps thoughtfully and creatively engage the world in ways that will reinvent our society for the benefit of everyone. We shall miss you, but please stay in touch with your alma mater, Fresno State!

Best wishes for a bright future,

Honora Chapman, Ph.D.
Dean

Sergio La Porta, Ph.D.

Honorary Degree

Judy Chicago

Judy Chicago is widely recognized for her cultural contributions in the field of contemporary art. She is also the founder of the Feminist Art Program - the first of its kind - created at what was then called Fresno State College more than half a century ago.

The ground-breaking program brought together female art students in an effort to overcome the prevailing views at that time that women could not produce great art. At California State University, Fresno, Ms. Chicago's pedagogical strategies - developed with her students - prompted new ways of depicting their experiences of womanhood. The program upheld the value of traditional female crafts, like embroidery, and concerns about body image by incorporating them into their art.

The success of the program would later prompt the California Institute of the Arts to invite Ms. Chicago to create a similar program for its university.

Ms. Chicago's innovative artwork and large-scale collaborative projects include her most well-known work "The Dinner Party," a multimedia representation of women's contributions to western culture completed in 1979. In the 1980s, Ms. Chicago completed "Birth Project," images created in needlework of women's experiences of pregnancy and birth. "The Holocaust Project: From Darkness to Light" was exhibited in 1993 and over the next decade.

Her work as an artist, mentor, teacher, writer and leader changed the art world, the lives of her students, her artistic collaborators, her viewing public and the communities where she taught, worked, exhibited and lectured. Her creative spirit and dedication to social justice continue to motivate her to make art that speaks to a global audience.

In recognition of her cultural contributions to the fine arts and feminism movements, the Board of Trustees of the California State University and California State University, Fresno are proud to confer upon Judy Chicago the honorary degree of Doctor of Fine Arts.

Honorary Degree

Antonio Petrosino

Antonio Petrosino was born in Coperchia, Italy, in 1933 and came to Clovis, California in 1947 with his family. He graduated from California State University, Fresno in 1953 and earned his teaching and counseling credential a year later. Mr. Petrosino worked as an educator in the Fresno Unified School District for 40 years.

Throughout his life, Mr. Petrosino and his wife, Louise, have embodied the value of serving others.

They have supported organizations such as Valley Children's Healthcare, Clovis Unified School District and Fresno State.

In 1964, Mr. Petrosino, along with other Fresno State Newman Club alumni, established the St. Paul Newman Center to serve Fresno State's Catholic community. In the mid-1960s, he started Fresno State's first Italian language courses and taught the language for seven years. He recently helped found the Italian Studies committee whose goal is to establish, sustain and grow the program through philanthropic giving.

After his wife's death in 2004, Mr. Petrosino set out to honor her memory by continuing her legacy of service. He dedicated more time to Fresno State by volunteering in the College of Arts and Humanities, the Kremen School of Education and Human Development, the Fresno State Alumni Association and the Bulldog Foundation. He received the Arthur Safstrom Service Award in 2019 for his distinguished record of service to Fresno State.

In 2021, Mr. Petrosino established the Antonio and Louise Petrosino Family Italian Studies endowment and the Antonio and Louise Petrosino Family Italian Studies Endowed Scholarship. His commitment to Fresno State has positively impacted the lives of countless students who he hopes will carry on his wife's philanthropic spirit while embracing the opportunities of higher education. In addition, Mr. Petrosino is a loyal and ardent supporter of Fresno State student-athletes.

In recognition of his contributions to educational initiatives in Fresno and his philanthropic leadership at Fresno State, the Board of Trustees of the California State University and California State University, Fresno are proud to confer upon Antonio Petrosino the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters.

To Thee Our Alma Mater

Let us in song,
Our voices raised
In cloistered courts,
To sound thy praise.

Each voice and heart
That sings is true
To thee,
Oh, cardinal and blue.

For thee,
Our hopes and memories;
For thee,
Our hearts and loyalties.

Thy sons and daughters
Hail thee great,
Our Alma Mater,
Fresno State!
